Career and research

After graduation, Berners-Lee worked as an engineer at the telecommunications company Plessey in Poole, Dorset.<sup>[26]</sup> In 1978, he joined D. G. Nash in Ferndown, Dorset, where he helped create type-setting software for printers.<sup>[26]</sup>

Berners-Lee worked as an independent contractor at CERN from June to December 1980. While in Geneva, he proposed a project based on the concept of hypertext, to facilitate sharing and updating information among researchers.<sup>[29]</sup> To demonstrate it, he built a prototype system named ENQUIRE.<sup>[30]</sup>

After leaving CERN in late 1980, he went to work at John Poole's
